I deem it but proper to state here that, inasmuch as it was allowed the other two Members <sup>of the Sundry Committee</sup> to charge Twenty Five Dollars each for services rendered and time lost, the same being credited on their subscription and having kept an account of services rendered by hands and team until the same amounted to more than Fifty Dollars, I counted this and my own services as with more than my subscription, and so reckoned it paid in that way.

This, with a good conscience, was all my pay.

Joseph S. Symmes.
