A Memorial

From the President and Members of the Board of Trustees of the Second ^{Presbyterian} Church of Cranbury

To the President and Members of the Board of Trustees of the first Presbyterian Church of Cranbury Greeting—

Dear Brethren,

Whereas, the various causes which have conspired, in bringing about the present state of things, with regard to the public worship of Almighty God, in this place; are of so recent occurrence, as to preclude the necessity of venturing to all of them on this occasion.

One or two may suffice—

And whereas, the first Church was not sufficiently large, to accommodate all the adults belonging to said Congregation, there being about as many seats below, as there were Members in full Communion, consequently excluding the living Generation, the hope of the Church, from the privileges their Parents were enjoying in the House of God, on the Sabbath day—

And let it be remembered, that those in favor of Mine took at first, had not the most distant idea, of making it any where, but in, or about the first Church, thereby being desirous, of promoting union and the best interests of the Church at large; nor yet in after time, would it have been attempted, could there have ^{been} a subsequent period, agreed upon, for the commencement of such operations— But the guide once of a mysterious Providence hath otherwise directed.

While having but recently enjoyed in common with yourselves that Inheritance, which we all as Members of one Church called our own, and which our Ancestors designed for the benefit of their Posterity, (Among whom we claim to be recognized) to enable them to sustain the Church of Christ in this place.

That although worshipping under a separate roof, from causes before referred to, our Relationship is still unchanged; We are engaged in the same Glorious Cause, supporting the same Doctrines, worshipping the same God, None of your Sons, flesh of your flesh, and some would humbly claim a higher, and nobler Rank, viz. heirs of the same immortal Glory, with yourselves.

We therefore cannot perceive, that we have forfeited any right, claim, or title, which we have at any time possessed, to our proper and proportionate share of the funds, or Property of the first Church, & that Real, or Personal, now in your possession, and of which, we have so long enjoyed the Advantages in common with yourselves.

With an ardent desire to maintain that Christian Spirit, which should ever characterize the intercourse between those who profess to be followers of Christ, and having full confidence, that, we will be met by you in the same Spirit, and relying upon the Justice of our Claims; we most respectfully, though earnestly, request that you will make a division of the Property of the Church, and assign, and set over to us, our proper share of said Inheritance; both Real and Personal; and although, we hereby disclaim the Idea of dictating to you on that point, yet as the party solicited, it may be expected that we should

State the proportion, to which we think ourselves entitled, and with which we would be satisfied. We do therefore in the same friendly Spirit, which we have intended, should characterize this Memorial, and with a desire to ask nothing more than is just, and equitable, propose, that you assign and set over to us, one half of the Funds of the Church, and that portion of the Parsonage lying south of the Cranberry Neck Road -

Dear Brethren

Whereas the various causes which have conspired in bringing about the present state of things, with regard to the public worship of Almighty God in this place, are of so recent occurrence, as to preclude the necessity of testifying to all of them on this occa-sion. one or two may suffice. And whereas the first Church was not sufficiently large to

-bered, that those in favor of more room at first, had not the most distant Idea of making it any when, but in or about the first Church, being thereby desirous, of promoting union, and the best interests of the Church at large.

Nor in after time would it have been attempt-ed could there have been, a subsequent period agreed upon for the commencement of such operations. While having but recently enjoyed in common with your selves, that inhar-monious which we all as members of one Church called our own, and which our ancestors de-sired for the benefit of their Posterity. (among whom we claim to be recognized) to enable them to sustain the Church of Christ in this place. That although worshiping under a separate roof from ~~Camden~~ before, yet our our relationship is still unchanged; we are engaged in the same glorious cause, supporting the same Doctrines, Worshipping the same God, with ourselves. None of your bone flesh of your flesh" and some would humbly blow a higher and holier kindred vein of the same immortal Glory. We therefore cannot perceive that we have forfeited any legal claim, or title, which we have at any time possessed to our proper, and proportionate share of the funds, or property, of the first Church either real, or personal, now in your possession, and of which we have so long enjoyed the advantages in common with your selves. With an ardent desire to maintain that Christian Spirit, which should ex-

- ever characterize the intercourse between those who profess to be followers of Christ and having full confidence that we will be met by you in the same Spirit, and relying upon the justice of our claim, we most respectfully though earnestly request that you will make a division of the property of the Church. And assign and set over to us, our proper share of the Inher- itance both real and personal, and although we hereby disclaim, the idea of dictation to you on that point, yet as the party soliciting, it may be expected that we should state the proposition, to which we think ourselves entitled, and with which we would be satisfied. We do therefore in the same friendly manner, which we have intended to be characterized this memorial, and with a desire to ask nothing more than is just, and equitable; propose that you assign and set over to us one half of the funds of the Church and and that portion of the Parsonage, or real estate lying South of the Cranbury Neck Road.

will be read before the Congregation especially convenient

To the Honorable the Legislative Council and General Assembly of the state of New Jersey.

The Trustees of the first Presbyterian church and congregation of Cranbury, would respectfully invite the attention of your honorable body to a subject regarding the interests and property of the congregation, of which they are the legally constituted guardians.

About six years ago, the necessity and propriety of building a new house of worship began to be agitated, and as is generally the case, in matters of this kind at the first, there was a great diversity of opinion. The majority of the congregation were opposed to immediate action, and were for postponing the consideration of the subject to some future period, owing to the great want of unanimity. This however did not satisfy the minority, and after several meetings of the congregation, failing to secure a majority in favour of the project, they withdrew, and resolved upon the erection of a second church. When this was decided upon, several of those who had acted with the minority, feeling that there was too much rashness and precipitancy in taking such a step, determined to act with them no longer, because they believed it much better to wait a little, when they had every reason to suppose the object would be accomplished with considerable unanimity and without dividing the congregation. But those of the minority who withdrew—went forward—erected their building, and were incorporated as the second church and congregation of Cranbury. They then applied to the Trustees of the first church for a share of the property. This application was respectfully answered in the negative, and the Trustees declined granting their request for two plain reasons:

ONE, that the property in question belonged to the first church, and was deeded to the Trustees in behalf of that church, and could not therefore be given to another and a distinct incorporated body, which would be alienating it from its original design.

THE OTHER, that the applicants might receive the benefits of said property, by remaining in connexion with the church and congregation to which it of right belonged, and that by withdrawing of their own accord, they thereby relinquished all right to the same, and all claim to any part of it.

This decision and answer did not satisfy the Trustees of the second church, and they then requested that their application should be submitted to the whole congregation. In accordance with their wishes, a meeting of the congregation was called for this purpose, when there was a large attendance of all the pew holders and supporters. The request of the second church was laid before them, and the question was put, whether they would accede to it, or not. This question received a decided negative vote, only one dissenting.

It was then hoped that the matter would there rest; but it appears from a late publication in one of the weekly papers of New Brunswick, that the Trustees of the second church are about to make application to your honorable body for the passage of a law granting them what they suppose their share of the property of the first church. Now, we as the acting guardians of the rights and property of the first church and congregation, object to this course on the part of the Trustees of the second church to obtain their ends, for the following reasons, which we hope your honorable body will duly consider.

1st. It is a most novel proceeding in cases where rights and property are concerned, especially where the right of property is contested, and where exact justice should be administered, to pass by the civil courts, and refer such cases at once for decision to your honorable body: to leave the judicial tribunals constituted for the administration of the law, and for obtaining the ends of justice, and to seek redress at the hands of the legislative department. How can it be expected that questions of grave import can be calmly weighed and settled according to law, without a proper understanding of all the circumstances,—without testimony, and in one word, without all those steps of precaution which are the concomitants of the bench, the bar, and the jury? If the Trustees of the second church are disposed to resort to the proper tribunal for a decision of this matter, we will not object, but will be ready to meet them there, where we do not fear that we will fail to substantiate the exclusive right of the first church to their property.

2d. Should your honorable body take definite action on the memorial of the Trustees of the second church, and issue said memorial according to their requests, it would establish a precedent that would endanger the peace and prosperity of all the churches in this state possessed of any funds: and would throw open the door to applications of the same kind at every meeting of the legislature; making your honorable body, much of the time you are in session a judicial tribunal for the division of the property of churches, upon the application of minorities who choose to withdraw: establish this precedent, and any number of disaffected individuals in a congregation could come forward, and claiming their share of the property retire. It could be divided and subdivided until each neighborhood in a congregation would be induced to claim their respective portion, under the plea of building a church for themselves. In this way the funds of many churches would soon be frittered away. And then what would become of the security of these trusts, when legacies sacredly bequeathed to particular churches, could be so easily diverted from the design of the donor, and appropriated to others. It is quite evident, that such a precedent, would jeopardize all church property in the state, and throw an uncertainty and confusion over all such sacred trusts. We cannot but hope, therefore, that your honorable body will not sanction a principle, and establish a precedent, the operation of which will be so extensively injurious.

CONDITIONS OF INSURANCE.

- Members of this Association insuring in other companies, property covered in part by this association, shall be required to have the approval of the Board of Directors endorsed on the policy by the Secretary, in which case the Association shall be liable to a reasonable proportion of any loss or damage that may have been sustained.
- Members sustaining a loss by fire shall give immediate notice thereof to the Secretary, whose duty it shall be to notify three Directors living nearest the place of the fire, in order that they may view and inquire into the circumstances of the same; and if the loss be in part, they shall endeavor to adjust the same for the same, and give an order on the Treasurer, payable within ninety days from the date thereof, or on that the same is retained; and if they cannot agree with the loss, touching the loss or damage, it may be referred to arbitrators, mutually chosen, whose award shall be in writing, and shall be binding on the parties. And if the loss or damage shall not probably exceed one hundred dollars, the loss may notify the nearest Director, who shall attend to the duties, and be empowered to act as above.
- There shall be an assessment taken in this Association on books of Account, bills, bonds, ready money, jewelry, plate, paintings, engravings, wooden and cotton factories, powder mills, saltpetre works, distilleries and other houses, connected therewith, or buildings in villages more thickly settled than the village of Millstone, up to 1869, unless by special consent from the Board.
- No loss or damage to be paid on any fire occurring by any invasion, foreign enemy, insurrection, riot, civil commotion, or any military or warred power.
- No person shall be remunerated for any loss or damage by fire, if it can be proved that it occurred through the design of the assured.
- Any member may withdraw from the Association by returning his or her policy to the Secretary, and by paying up all arrears and liabilities to that period, and twenty-five cents for canceling.
- Members who have forfeited their rights and claims, under the sixth section of the charter, may, after paying a double assessment, without prosecution, be reinstated, by application to one of the Surveyors, and paying fifty cents for loss and expense.
- All assessments, as determined by any Surveyor, shall be binding on the parties, until allowed or corrected by the Board, and a written notice of such alteration or correction served upon the assured.
- Property shall be assessed only in the name of the owner thereof.
- The sale of property shall render the policy thereon void, from the date of such conveyance to the Association; but the assured shall be held liable to a reasonable proportion of losses, until such policy be assigned to the purchaser, or property removed.
- Members sustaining loss on contents in buildings, or move goods will be required to make appear by the best evidence that can be obtained (under such an estimation,) of the property consumed, and the value thereof to the Director examining the same.

SUPPLEMENT TO CHARTER.

And be it enacted, That if any person insured by the said corporation shall convey or assign the property insured, it shall be lawful for such person to assign to the purchaser the policy of insurance; but the corporation shall not be bound by such policy after such assignment, unless such assignment shall be recorded in the books of the corporation and certified on the policy, within ten days after the date of said assignment.—LAW OF PARLIAMENT 18th, 1868.

Doxology & Lord's Prayer.

"COME LET US ANEW."

Come, let us anew
Our journey pursue,
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master appear;
His adorable will Let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve,
By the patience of hope and the labor of love.

Our life is a dream,
Our time, as a stream,
Glides away swiftly,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay;
The arrow is flown,
The moment is gone,
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.

Oh that each in the day
Of his coming may say,
"I have fought my way through,
I have finished the work which thou gav'st me to do!"
Oh that each from his Lord
May receive the glad word,
"Well and faithfully done!
Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne!"

Prayer.

"THOU ART COMING!"

Thou art coming, O my Saviour, Thou art coming! O my King,
Every tongue Thy name confessing,
Well may we rejoice and sing;
Thou art coming! rays of glory,
Thro' the veil Thy death has rent,
Gladden now our pilgrim pathway,
Gleam from Thy presence sent.

CHOIRS.

Thou art coming, Thou art coming, We shall meet Thee on Thy way.
Thou art coming, we shall see Thee, And be like Thee on that day.
Thou art coming! Thou art coming! Jesus our beloved Lord,
O the joy to see Thee reigning, Worship'd, glorified, adored.

Thou art coming, we are waiting
With a hope that cannot fail,
Asking not the day or hour,
Anchored safe within the veil
Thou art coming! at Thy table;
We are witnesses for this,
As we meet Thee in communion,
Harvest of our coming bliss.

Baptisms.

"GOD BLESS OUR NATIVE LAND!"

God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand!
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of winds and wave!
Do thou our country save
By thy great might.

For her our prayer shall rise
To God above the skies,
On him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guardian with watchful eye!
To thee alone we cry,
God save the State.

Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

Presenting of Bibles.

TRIUMPH BY AND BY.

The prize is set before us,
To win, His words implore us,
The eye of God is o'er us
From on high, from on high,
His loving tones are calling
While sin is dark, appalling,
Tis Jesus gently calling,
He is nigh, He is nigh.

We'll follow where He leadeth,
We'll pasture where He feedeth,
We'll yield to Him who pleadeth
From on high, from on high;
Then sought from Him shall sever,
Our hope shall brighten ever,
And faith shall fail us never,
He is nigh, He is nigh.

CHOIRUS.

By and by we shall meet Him, By and by we shall greet Him,
And with Jesus reign in glory, By and by, by and by;
By and by we shall meet Him, By and by we shall greet Him,
And with Jesus reign in glory, By and by.

Sermon.

Prayer.

THE HEAVENLY CANAAN.

There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign;
Eternal day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain;
There everlasting spring abides, And never fading flows;
Where Death, like a narrow sea, divides That heavenly land from ours.
Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood, Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews fair Canaan stood, While Jordan ruled between;
But timorous mortals start and shrink To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, trembling on the brink, And fear to launch away.
O could we make our doubts remove, Those gloomy doubts that rise,—
And see the Canaan that we love, With unbeloued eyes,— Could we but climb where Moses stood, And view the landscape o'er,— Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood, Should fright us from the shore.

Benediction.
