

CRANBURY, N.J.

2ND PRESBYTERIAN
CHURCH RECORDS

REEL 2

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

CRANBURY (N.J.) SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH RECORDS, 1838-1938. Micro-filmed 1968 by the Rutgers University Library. All records of the church known to exist have been copied. They are in possession of the Cranbury First Presbyterian Church, with which the Second Church was reunited in 1938, after nearly a hundred years of separation. Complete in two reels.

REEL 1

"Semi-centenary History of the Second Presbyterian Church, Cranbury," by John S. Davison (1888)

Congregational Minutes, 1838-1933 (Includes: Trustees' minutes, 1855-1919; pastors' salary receipts, 1859-78; and other financial records)

Session Minutes, 1838-70 (Includes: records of communicants, 1838-69, and baptisms, 1838-70)

Session Minutes, 1870-97

Session Minutes, 1897-1927

REEL 2

Session Minutes, 1927-38

Trustees' Minutes, 1919-38 (Minutes for 1855-1919 are in volume of congregational minutes, 1838-1933, on Reel 1)

Register, 1889/70-1897 (Records of communicants, 1838-69, and baptisms, 1838-70, are in volume of session minutes, 1838-70, Reel 1)

Register, 1897-1923

Register, 1923-38

Treasurer's Accounts, 1889-1917 (Note salary receipts, 1839-78, and other financial records, in volume of congregational minutes, 1838-1933, Reel 1)

Bills and Receipts, 1916-18 (See also note accompanying preceding entry)